

Job Description

Job title	Student Advisor (Immigration)
School / department	Student Services
Grade	5
Line manager	Senior Student Advisor (Immigration)

Main purpose of the job

This is a key role within the Student Services Department to support the Student Advice and Immigration team, and work with colleagues across the university to deliver student-centred advice and guidance to both students and staff on a range of immigration and international student issues.

The post holder will undertake casework and provide support and guidance to students and staff in respect of a range of practical advice issues concerning student immigration and fee status regulations. The post holder is expected to contribute to the provision of a professional and specialist advice and guidance service to all students, to encourage their academic progress and student retention.

The role requires detailed and up-to-date knowledge of:

- International student issues e.g. UK immigration law, UKVI Student visa and EU Settlement Scheme regulations, submission of Student visa applications from inside and outside the UK, healthcare and NHS entitlements and immigration options for students during and after their studies.
- Fee status regulations at both FE and HE (training will be provided if the post-holder does not have knowledge of fee status regulations)

This appointment requires a flexible approach to working hours as occasional weekend and evening cover is required, mainly for open days. Advisors will be based primarily at the St Mary's Road campus in Ealing, but regular cover will be required on our campus in Brentford, weekly / monthly on a rota basis with other advisors. Support of occasional open day and enrolment activities at our Reading campus may also be required.

Key areas of responsibility

- Provide a professional, specialist and confidential advice service to students, advising on a range of topics including: fee status and UKVI Student visa and EU Settlement Scheme regulations. This service is to be provided for students in both further and higher education, and also to potential students interested in applying to the University of West London.
- Undertake specialist advocacy work on behalf of individual students, making representations where appropriate to external stakeholders such as UKVI.
- Undertake and deliver an effective and appropriate advisory service to students on international and immigration related matters
- Advise international students about practical implications that may affect their visa, right to study in the UK and other concerns as a result of interrupting their study, repeat study, course transfers and withdrawals.

- Participate in recruitment and enrolment-related events and assist with other activities which underpin the student lifecycle from induction to graduation, as required.
- Use effective spoken and written communication skills to deal efficiently, effectively and tactfully with people at all levels.
- Help maintain an effective information service by developing and producing electronic guides and resources, written reports, training and other materials for use by students and colleagues.
- Assist the Senior Student Advisor (Immigration) and the Head of Student Advice and Immigration in providing staff development training on topics connected to student support e.g. fee status assessment, student immigration.
- Devise and deliver presentations and workshops for both current and prospective students on a range of practical, welfare and immigration-related issues.
- Undertake duties at all times with due regard to the university's Equal Opportunities Policy and Equality and Diversity Policy
- Be aware of and comply with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and Freedom of Information Act at all times.
- Adhere to all of the university's procedures and policies.
- Any other duties assigned by the Head of Student Advice and Immigration, and the Director of Student Services, to ensure the efficient and effective operation of Student Services.
- In addition to the above areas of responsibility, the post-holder may be required to undertake any other reasonable duties relating to the broad scope of the position.
