

Job Description

Job title	CRM and Conversion Officer
School / department	Marketing, Recruitment and Communications
Grade	5
Line manager	Customer Relationship Manager
Responsible for (direct reports)
Date of creation or review	26/09/2025

Main purpose of the job

The CRM and Conversion Officer will be part of a small team responsible for the planning and implementation of robust Applicant Conversion Communications using the University's CRM system. The post holder will oversee the creation of effective content for communicating with prospective students through a variety of media with the aim of encouraging good quality applications and aiding conversion throughout the recruitment process, to ensure the University meets its undergraduate and postgraduate recruitment targets.

Key areas of responsibility

Develop and implement creative and engaging communication plans and activities to support the student journey from enquiry to enrolment with the aim of meeting student recruitment targets.

Use email marketing, CRM and other online systems to manage student communication throughout the recruitment cycle.

Create targeted, relevant and timely content for specific audiences.

Create, manage and execute specific targeted customer segments, e-mail templates and customer journeys in the CRM system.

Manage and manipulate complex data sets using Excel, databases and the CRM system to support effective communication with different audience segments.

Liaise with the Customer Relationship Manager, Student Recruitment team and Admissions to develop conversion activities in response to the University's student recruitment trends.

Create and maintain the calendar of conversion communications to ensure the University is delivering creative, concise and engaging communications that are appropriate to its target audiences.

Coordinate outbound conversion call campaigns, including the creation of call scripts.

Coordinate the production of printed conversion material.

Produce evaluation reports on the effectiveness of campaigns and present these to the wider team for dissemination and sharing with key departments across the University.

Develop bespoke campaigns for one-off projects for academic and professional service departments across the University.

Liaise with the Student Recruitment team to plan and deliver conversion events, both on campus and online.

Liaise with colleagues in the wider Marketing, Recruitment and Communications department, as well as colleagues in academic schools and professional services, to develop content and implement the conversion communications plan.

Proactively seek improvements in content development and delivery by giving guidance and sharing best practice based on evaluation of communications and their impact.

Collate and analyse quantitative and qualitative data to monitor activity and produce reports to support decision making and the development of strategic conversion activities.

Deploy IT skills and knowledge of digital media and new online technologies in support of identified goals.

Occasional management of Student Ambassadors for various conversion activities and projects.

Work with the Customer Relationship Manager on the development, implementation and optimisation of the University's Clearing conversion plan.

Occasional support of the Student Recruitment Team by attending internal and external recruitment activities (e.g. university open days, UCAS exhibitions) as required.

Support the wider Recruitment and Customer Relationships Team in planning and implementing the University's Clearing operation.

Occasional support of the Course Enquiries Coordinator in responding to enquiries from prospective students via a variety of media, ensuring enquiries are followed up and recorded efficiently and accurately.

Ensure that data is stored and managed in accordance with the University's data protection policies and GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation).

Assist the Customer Relationship Manager with ad hoc project work as and when necessary.

Assist with the recruitment, training and supervision of temporary staff, such as Student Ambassadors.

In addition to the above areas of responsibility the post-holder may be required to undertake any other reasonable duties relating to the broad scope of the position, commensurate with the post, and in support of the University.

Dimensions / background information

The role of CRM and Conversion Officer is part of a small Customer Relationships Team, which is one of three functions within the Recruitment and Customer Relationships Team, part of the University's Marketing, Recruitment and Communications department.

Person Specification

Criteria	Essential*	Desirable*
Qualifications and/or membership of professional bodies	A relevant first degree or equivalent
Knowledge and experience	At least two years' experience of working with Customer Relationship Management systems, ideally Microsoft Dynamics365 Experience of managing email marketing campaigns Experience of working with online systems to implement communications strategies Knowledge of appropriate communications for different segments of prospective students Experience of working with large databases and data analysis Experience of creating effective and engaging content Experience of liaising with staff, at a range of levels, within an organisation	Experience of working in the higher education sector Knowledge of the UCAS application cycle
Specific skills to the job	Excellent communication skills, both written and verbal, with the ability to communicate with a wide variety of internal stakeholders and prospective students Familiarity with online technologies and digital and social media, and the confidence to deploy them effectively to help achieve desired results	Outstanding customer service skills

	Accurate, systematic and methodical way of thinking Ability to write effective and engaging copy Excellent level of computer literacy in Microsoft packages, particularly Excel Ability to liaise with colleagues and management to understand requirements, support projects and provide feedback on the student journey Ability to analyse data, and evaluate and report on activity Willingness to learn and use new ICT technologies
General skills	Exceptional attention to detail A proactive approach and the ability to work independently Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to work effectively in a team Ability to multitask, prioritise and organise a varied workload and to complete work to deadline Ability to problem solve
Other	A flexible approach to work which includes occasional evening and weekend work

Disclosure and Barring Scheme Is a DBS Check required:  This post does not require a DBS check

Before making a selection, please refer to the University's Disclosure and Barring Checks Guidance for Staff and Criminal Convictions, Disclosures and Barring Staff Policy and Procedure. If a DBS check is required for the role, a Check Approval Form will need to be completed.

* Essential Criteria are those, without which, a candidate would not be able to do the job. Applicants who have not clearly demonstrated in their application that they possess the essential requirements will normally be rejected at the shortlisting stage.

*Desirable Criteria are those that would be useful for the post holder to possess and will be considered when more than one applicant meets the essential requirements, to determine which applicants to shortlist.